By Nada Shaath
Cliquer sur les icônes de la carte :

- Camel
- Wind
- Ship
- Ship 2
- Door
- Star
- Patch
- Skull
Abū ‘Abd Allāh Muḥammad ibn Baṭūṭah (Arabic: ), or simply Ibn Battuta, also known as Shams ad–Dīn¹ (February 25, 1304–1368 or 1369), was a Muslim Moroccan explorer, known for his extensive travels published in the Rihla (literally, "The Journey").
Famous of

Greatest travelers of all times his trip was 75,000 miles long 3 times longer than Marco Polo’s trip. Traveled Africa, Asia, and Europe.
His Trip
Some of the story

• He left Tangier (طنجة) and came back to Fez. He started his trip when he was 50 years old and lived until he was 73 years old. He recorded his trip in a book named (تحفة الأنظار في غرائب الأمصار و عجائب الأبصر).

• Thanks to his book some of the African counties were discovered such as Mali, and Tembacto.
Most beautiful thing he ever seen

- Ibn Battuta states that the most beautiful thing he saw was “Cairo” and he described it as the most beautiful civilization he ever seen.
Interesting info about Ibn Battuta

• Born in 703
• He traveled to 44 countries
• His trips lasted 29 years
• He married 23 times
• He has 70 boys and girls.
What is the name of the explorer

1. Ibn Hilal
2. Ibn Ali
3. Ibn Battuta
How old was he when he travelled...

1. 40
2. 50
3. 60
How old was he when he returned to Fez...

1. 80
2. 73
3. 69
What continent he didn’t travel to?

1. Europe
2. Africa
3. North America
How many kids he had